4 “ARTICLE —

5 “MAINTENANCE OF SOCIAL SECURITY

6 “SECTION 1. The Congress shall pass no law which 7 alters the fundamental structure of the Federal Old-Age,
8 Survivors, and Disability Insurance Program (hereinafter 9 in this article referred to as ‘Social Security’) as a social 10 insurance program which provides guaranteed benefits
11 that cannot be outlived to retirees and guaranteed benefits
12 to disabled workers, the families of retirees and disabled
13 workers, and the survivors of deceased retirees and work-
14 ers. Such benefits must be fully protected against infla-
15 tion; they must incorporate a progressive benefit structure 16 under which the benefit amount is based on the level of 17 earnings a worker had during his or her working years;
18 and they must be financed in a way that pools risks and 19 rewards broadly across society and between generations.

20 “PROTECTION OF SOCIAL SECURITY TRUST FUNDS

21 “SECTION 2. The Congress shall pass no law which 22 diverts revenues from the Social Security Trust Funds,
23 including contributions under the Federal Insurance Con-
24 tributions Act and the Self-Employment Contributions
25 Act, or uses such revenues for any purpose other than pay-

1 ing Social Security benefits and financing the administra-
2 tive costs associated with paying such benefits.

3 “PROTECTION OF BENEFITS AND PROHIBITION ON 4 PRIVATIZATION OF SOCIAL SECURITY

5 “SECTION 3. The Congress shall pass no law which 6 fully or partially privatizes Social Security, including the 7 establishment of individual investment accounts which re-
8 place some or all of Social Security benefits, which directly 9 or indirectly cause reductions in such benefits, or which 10 are used to finance such benefits.”.
